

virtually informed

Virtually Informed: The Internet as (New) Health Information Source

Final conference of the project "Virtually Informed: The Internet in the Medical Field"
University of Vienna, 25th/26th January 2008
Old Chapel, AAKH Campus, Spitalgasse 2 Hof 2

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Thursday, 24th January

17:30 – 19:30	Presentation of major results of the Project "Virtually Informed" by Ulrike Felt & panel discussion with various stakeholders
	(Open event in German language)
19:30	Welcome and Registration

Friday, 25th January

8:30	Registration
9:00 – 10:15	Ulrike Felt Welcome & Introduction
15 min	Coffee Break
10:30 – 12:00	Session I Communities Online – Online Communities	Akrich, Madeleine; Méadel, Cécile; Rémy, Catherine: Building Collectives via the Web? Information and mobilisation on cancer websites Mariona Estrada Canal, Marcel Balasch Domínguez: Producing and Reproducing Health Information in Virtual Patient Communities
12:00 – 13:30	Lunch Break	Restaurant Gangl
13:30 – 15:00	Session II Multiple Uses of the Internet	Luz Lazos-Ramírez: Social Networks and the Uses of Internet Information in the Health System of Mexico City Lisa Gugglberger: Patients and their Internet(s): Multiple roles of the Internet in the context of handling the health state
15 min	Coffee Break
15:15 – 16:45	Session III Reordering, Sharing and Resisting: Looking at responsibility issues from different perspectives	Brit Winthereik: Boundary-crossing in health care: Shared care, online records and the emergence of new responsibilities Bernhard Höcher, Ulrike Felt: Taming the Unruly Citizen-Patient: Quality labelling on the web and the quest for "right" information
15 min	Coffee Break
17:00 – 18:00	Filis Henwood Informed Virtually or Virtually Informed? Reflections on the construction of informed patients and health-e citizens

Saturday, 26th January

9:00 – 10:00	Samantha Adams At the Intersection of the Web, Health, and Policy: Encouraging reflexive consumerism with kiesBeter.nl
30 min	Coffee Break
10:30 – 12:30	Session IV Researching Medicine and the Internet: methodological Reflections	John Law: Introduction and moderation Maud Radstake: Genes on the Agenda: exploring possibilities for online dialogue Astrid Mager: Multiplying the Web: how the choice of method frames the object of study
12:30 – 13:45	Lunch Break	Restaurant Gangl
13:45 – 15:15	Session V New Developments on the Web? Web 2.0	Peter Giger: 2.0 Knowledge Processes – the Short Story Holly Witteman: EHealth in the Era of Web 2.0
15 min	Coffee Break
15:30 – 16:30	Sarah Nettleton & Sally Wyatt Closing reflections: Looking back and ahead	